

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Jason Crews,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Allstate Corporation,

Defendant.

No. CV-25-00572-PHX-SPL

ORDER SETTING RULE 16
CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure,

IT IS ORDERED:

I. Case Management Conference

A Case Management Conference is set for July 25, 2025 at 10:00 a.m., before the Honorable Judge Steven P. Logan, United States District Judge, in Courtroom 501, Sandra Day O'Connor United States Courthouse, 401 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85003. Counsel who will be responsible for trial of the lawsuit for each party, and any party that is not represented by counsel, shall appear and participate in the Case Management Conference and shall have authority to enter into stipulations regarding all matters that may be discussed.

II. Rule 26(f) Meeting

The parties are directed to meet and confer no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Case Management Conference as required by Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil

1 Procedure. It is the responsibility of Defendant to initiate the Rule 26(f) Meeting, and
 2 Plaintiff shall promptly and cooperatively participate in the Rule 26(f) Meeting.

3 At the Rule 26(f) Meeting, the parties shall jointly develop and file with the Clerk
 4 of Court no later than July 11, 2025, each of the following in the form outlined below: (1)
 5 a Joint Rule 26(f) Case Management Report, and (2) a Joint Proposed Rule 16 Case
 6 Management Order. Requests to continue the Case Management Conference or 7 outstanding motions will not excuse the requirement to participate in a Rule 26(f) meeting
 8 and to submit the parties' joint report and proposed order.

9 III. Joint Rule 26(f) Case Management Report

10 The parties' Joint Rule 26(f) Case Management Report shall contain the following
 11 information in separately numbered paragraphs:

12 1. Attendance: The parties who attended the Rule 26(f) Meeting and assisted in 13 developing the parties' joint submissions;

14 2. Service: The parties, if any, which have not been served and an explanation of 15 why they have not been served, and any parties which have been served but have not 16 answered or otherwise appeared;

17 3. Nature of Case: The nature of the case, including a brief description – three 18 (3) pages or less - of the principal factual disputes and legal basis of all claims and 19 defenses;

20 4. Jurisdiction: The jurisdictional basis for the case, citing specific statutes. If 21 jurisdiction is based on diversity of citizenship, the report shall include a statement of the
 22 *citizenship of every party and a description of the amount in dispute;*¹

23 5. Additions and Amendments: Whether any party expects to add additional

24 ¹ The parties are reminded that (1) a corporation is a citizen of the state where it is
 25 incorporated and the state of its principal place of business, and (2) partnerships and limited
 26 liability companies are citizens of every state in which one of their partners or members
 27 resides. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c); Hertz Corp. v. Friend, 559 U.S. 77, 80, 92-93 (2010);

parties to the case or otherwise amend the pleadings;

6. Forthcoming Motions: A listing of contemplated motions and a statement of the issues to be decided by these motions;

7. Related Cases: The status of related cases pending before other courts or other judges of this District;

8. Discovery Limitations: Suggested changes, if any, in the limitations on discovery (including depositions) imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and a discussion of why such changes are proportional to the needs of this case;

9. Electronically Stored Information: Any issues relating to preservation, disclosure, or discovery of electronically stored information, including the parties' preservation of electronically stored information and the form or forms in which it will be produced;

10. Request for Jury Trial: Whether a jury trial has been requested and whether the request for a jury trial is contested. If the request for a jury trial is contested, the parties shall set forth the reasons why a trial by jury is in dispute;

11. Trial: The estimated date that the case will be ready for trial, the estimated length of trial, and any suggestions for shortening the trial;

12. Expedited Trial Alternative: Certification that counsel for each party has discussed with his or her client, or each pro se litigant has considered, the expedited trial alternative;²

13. Consent to Magistrate Judge: Whether the parties consent to the transfer of the case to a United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c);

14. Settlement and Dispute Resolution: The prospects for settlement, and

² Expedited Trial Alternative: The parties may elect to take this case directly to trial, whether jury or bench trial. An expedited trial will be held in this case if all parties agree to such a trial. If the parties elect to proceed to an expedited trial, no formal discovery or motion practice will occur and a Final Pretrial Conference will be scheduled. Counsel for each party must discuss this expedited trial alternative with his or her client. As part of this discussion, counsel must provide his or her client with two good faith estimates of the costs (including attorneys' fees) of litigating this case to completion: (1) an estimate of the cost if an expedited trial is elected, and (2) an estimate of the cost if an expedited trial is not elected and typical discovery and motion practice occur.

whether the case is suitable for referral to a United States Magistrate Judge for the purpose of holding a settlement conference (mediation), minitrial, summary jury trial, early neutral evaluation, or other form of alternative dispute resolution pursuant to LRCiv 83.10;

15. Modified Procedures: Suggested modification of pretrial procedures due to the nature of the case, for example:

ERISA Action: If the parties jointly agree to resolve an action brought pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq., through cross briefing, in lieu of filing the attached Joint Proposed Rule 16 Case Management Order, the parties shall propose a deadline for each of the following:

- (a) Initial disclosures;
- (b) Completion of disclosure of materials that either party contends should be considered as part of the record on review;
- (c) Filing of the Administrative Record;
- (d) Filing of Plaintiff's Opening Brief;
- (e) Filing of Defendant's Response Brief;
- (f) Filing of Plaintiff's Reply Brief; and
- (g) Completion of Good Faith Settlement Talks;

Class Action: If either party is presenting their case as a class action, the parties shall propose a deadline for each of the following:

- (a) Completion of class certification discovery;
- (b) Filing of any motion for class certification and responsive briefing;
- (c) Filing of any motion for class decertification and responsive briefing;

Patent Action: If either party believes a hearing pursuant to Markman v. Westview Instruments, Inc., 517 U.S. 370 (1996) will be necessary, the parties shall propose a deadline for each of the following:

- (a) Disclosure of asserted claims and infringement contentions;
- (b) Exchange of proposed claim constructions;
- (c) Filing of joint claim construction statement;

- (d) Disclosure of experts intended to be used at the Markman hearing;
- (e) Filing of Opening Claim Construction Brief;
- (f) Filing of Responsive Claim Construction Brief; and

16. Additional Matters: Any other matters that will aid the Court and parties in resolving this case in a just, speedy, and inexpensive manner.

IV. Joint Proposed Rule 16 Case Management Order

A fillable Joint Proposed Rule 16 Case Management Order has been attached to this Order. The parties shall carefully review, complete, and file the attached Order, providing the specific dates jointly proposed by the parties for the following deadlines (where indicated): amendment of pleadings and joining parties; completion of discovery; completion of expert disclosures; completion of expert depositions; filing of dispositive motions; and completion of good faith settlement talks. If the parties are unable to agree regarding specific deadlines, both proposed dates shall be included in the proposed order.³

Dated this 29th day of May, 2025.

 Honorable Steven P. Logan
 United States District Judge

³ Example: “Dispositive motions shall be filed no later than 1/1/18 (Plaintiffs), 1/2/18 (Defendants).”
